There are days we've lived through darkness
As the soul has held on tight
But there are many things the true heart sings
To the Presence of the light
The time is now... surrender
Your love and all your heart
To each and every being here
On this planet we're a part

There are moments without reason
Do you recognize the truth
Heart to heart we celebrate
The transformation of our youth

Chorus:

Speak and be one with the world
Look all around tell me what you've found
Speak and be one with the world
Look all around tell me what you've found
When you're one with the world

We all live together here with ideas we can share
It's time to lift your voices high
Empowering your care
It's time for peace to reign here
Embark the journey we've dreamed of
Understand that we're a breath away from Universal Love

There are moments without reason
Do you recognize the truth
Heart to heart we celebrate
The transformation of our youth
